C. S. F. Consult Mr. Stickney and address me McKay. Keep order and wait further instruction from Beta

C. S. F. When shall I hear from you again

McKay

C. S. F. Where did you swim ashore with a rope in your mouth

C. S. F. When did you arrive

C. H. This morning answer my dispatch by one word

C. S. F. Cardenas

McKay. Cardenas is right past orders of Beta Company We have undertaken something and will see it through

D. H. If the Quila comes down and catches the Panther and Capt. Rousseau, he pursues your men to go ashore at the wharf do - and tomorrow we will assist you, at all event we will bring you to the City, we cannot send a boat to see to night D. H.

Bladen Capt. Rousseau let every body go to sleep do not burn any more coal but keep a bright look out and if Bushwood comes down order every body ashore on the wharf, in the morning at the wharf yourself do not let Bushwood catch the boat, there is no danger to the ship or to us, I think Bushwood will stay at head of Pass to night

At 12 O'clock to night, Stickney will be on hand with orders, if any are to be given.
The steamer Phila was to take them but Hatch has stopped her, say nothing about this.
G. L. Liden

Brushman's departure at 9 & he paying that a steamer had left the magazine at 9 P.M. of the 3rd inst.
men, and that he was to stop her at all hazards.
H. L. Liden
now, Mr. Stickney says he has nothing to say, good night.

11.30 A.M. Oct 5th do not come, Casey is all right. M. L. Liden

The Officers going on the train are sure to board you and there is no risk to you if you are found on shore but we must run that by having your men on board, the train will probably give you all a passage back to the city which truly in you to act as I suggest had got before you will supply you with a days provisions.

M. L. Liden
I have received dispatch from Delta pile over on fellow instructions. C. L. Liden

We will get them away tomorrow if not to night. G. L. Liden but we will supply you with provisions to night, what will you require.

M. L. Liden
will talk to you. M. L. Liden

Mr. L. L. Liden's departure at 9 & he paying that a steamer had left the magazine at 9 P.M. of the 3rd inst.
men, and that he was to stop her at all hazards.
H. L. Liden
now, Mr. Stickney says he has nothing to say, good night.
