Capt. C. S. Foyssou
New Orleans

My dear Sir

With great pleasure in introducing to your particular attention my young friend Mr. W.
J. Smith of this city, also a member of the Editor of the Nashville Patriot a warm friend of your cause - Should the bearer of this letter wish to go to Education Island please give him a letter in my name to the General by my request - when you hear from my son any information in regard to his health and movements will be very acceptable to me - With kindest regards to yourself Remain very truly yours

Wm. W. Smith

James Watson, Nashville
Letter of Genl. Walker
July 14th 1860

has kindly presented me with the flag carried by General Walker's men.
I trust you will not think me presuming, Any information will be so gladly received.
I obtained your address from my Aunt - Mrs J. E. Richardson of your city.

Yours cordially
Alice Howell Richardson

Dear William Lawrence
I am interested in collecting all possible information in regard to the last days of my Uncle General William Walker. In a letter from Ben Larrison he suggested my writing and asking if you could furnish me with the names of any persons with him during that time, Mr. Wolf of California

Capt C. S. Chesney

I have made any effort several times since the 1st of May to write you with books, but each time I tried, it was too soon after me and my nervous system had been so long under the same pressure & strain which I myself said made it impossible for me to combine my self sufficiently to write. I felt that Wm Richardson seemed from that, and one year prevented him from Capt Chesney but the work given at the same time. I remember the even note, for last spring when
