The first of these is the fact that the Commission has been established by the Government of the United States of America. The Commission is composed of five members, three of whom are appointed by the President and two by the Senate. The Commission is authorized to investigate and report on the activities of the Communist Party in the United States. The Commission is also authorized to recommend such measures as may be necessary to prevent the activities of the Communist Party. The Commission is to report to the President and the Senate.
