

19
Fayssoux Collection
Catalog number 159
n.d.
Box 5 3 items
Folder 159

The, Howell Salmon here
mentioned, commanded a British vessel of War.
General William Walker surrendered to him under a full guarantee of life and return of himself and men to the U.S. The treacherous Englishman, delivered Walker to the cowardly Condemners who shot him to death, fearing to let him live Sept 12 1863
Ch. Chase Howell Salmon.

...to
...of Mr. G. ...
...and ... are for the
... will not ... place until ...
... is well enough to appear.
... is raising ... The farmers are
... their ... about the ... in the cotton.

VICKSBURG.

The Death of a Venerable Lady Which Reminds Reminiscences—The Coming Jubilee.

Vicksburg, Miss., July 30.—Special.— Information was received here today of the death at Raymond, Miss., last night of Mrs.
Jenkins, a venerable lady well remembered in this city. Her remains will probably be brought to the city for interment beside her late husband, Mr. Jenkins, who was the owner of the building, a prominent paper and was killed in the fall of 1862 by Mr. G.
... in a street fight, ... of the ... of a ...
The ... of ...
... was ... of ...
... in the ... of ...
... also killed in a ...
... only ... about ...
... years ... a ...
... in ... Mexico, ...
... with a ... of ...
... the ... of ...
... of ...
... of ...
... of ...
... of ...
... of ...