Resignation was accepted

Rivas Feb. 12th 1857

Captain :

Your letter of yesterday detailing the conduct of the commander of H. B. M. steam ship Cok has been received.

Your conduct is, in every respect, approved.

As the insult offered by Sir R. M.
Cham was gross and unprovoked - the more so, as it was given in our own port and on our own waters - you will cease to hold any intercourse, whatever, either verbal or written, with the Captain or any other officer of the Cok. You will order your officers and crew not to extend any courtesy whatever to the officers and crew of the Cok, or to receive in any way, in person or in port.

Yours obedt. servt
