Granada June 21st 1886

Lieut. Fargoss :-

You will inspect the schooner "San José" now lying in the port of San Juan del Sur and report to me what amount she could carry - also the number of men required to man her as a cutter for our purposes. Report also the state of her hull, masts etc. etc.

I desire the report as early as possible.

Yours most truly

Granada June 27th 1856

U C. F. Fagnon:

You will immediately proceed to fit up the schooner "San Jose" for our purpose. Capt Peter Johnson, who carries this letter, will assist in the work. He appears to be a man of knowledge and character.

The military Governor is instructed to furnish you with all you require for the purpose above indicated.

Keep me from time to time of the progress you make in the work.

Let me know what pieces you require for the regiments and a list can be had at San Juan P.R. I am

St C. J. Faysoux:

As soon as you are ready for sea you will proceed to the Gulf of Fonseca and cruise in these waters for a little while with the view of intercepting letters, packets etc.
from Salvador. Afterwards you will cruise wherever your judgment - guided by the news
you may get - may dictate.

You will call in as often as possible at San Juan del Sur and let me have news of you.

Yours truly &c.

Leutenant:

The 'Flying Dutchman' was called the 'Dutchman' was in at Radcliff a few days ago. It is also reported that they are trying to fit up a ship in the same port with the view of capturing the slave ship. It was also in here a few days ago what to hear that Radcliff (the ship) is a prisoner from being taken to the ship in the month by firing a gun ahead of her to keep her from taking.

I am aware of my Eastern Express at Radcliff. If there are more I think she would be likely to take to sea in and out with the 'Dutchman' as well as the 'Dutchman'.

Sir:

As there are Brigantine reports about the Havilla at this time, and as there seems very little to do in the Gulf of Fonseca at present you will remain in or off the port of San Juan del Sur until after the California steamer comes in.

Yours truly and

You will be in at the Iron Hill Camp until the steamers sail, and probably here in case of necessity. There is, however, no reason to apprehend that the men are among any other kind of the steamer.

Captain :

Your note of the 5th with the copy of a note from Col. Jaquess to yourself is just received. A Colonel of the Army mistakes his power when he issues orders to a Captain of the Navy concerning matters of prize or of discipline in admiralty. Col. J. should have so worded his letter as to make the order of release appear one from me and not from him self.

As soon as the 6th ship arrive I will have a supply forwarded to you;

Mr McDonald told me the steamer would supply you with sea provisions. If you are not sufficiently supplied let me know the fact.

Captain :

I returned from Granada last night. They have used up nearly all the six pound balls during the siege there. The few left I have ordered to be sent to San Juan as soon as possible.

Let me know if there is any fire-bricks as well as fire-clay at San Juan. If there can be had we can soon have a supply of balls.

I daily expect the San Carlos with stores, as soon as they arrive you can be supplied.

The man who wished to be sent as a prisoner to me has not yet arrived - or at least has not presented himself.

Your obedient servant.
